

Warm-up: God, Gold, and Glory

Unit 2: The Age of Contact

Name:

Date:

Period:

Adventurous Job Opportunity!

- Must travel 2 slow months by sea to get there.
- We aren't really sure where the job is exactly.
- Some workers have gotten sick, lost, or even died on this job.
- We also aren't sure when or if you can come back home.
- You could make millions of dollars!!!!!! Or maybe get a little bit of gold. Or you could make nothing. Who knows!

Answer the following questions:

Would you consider taking this job?
Why or why not?

Warm-up: God, Gold, and Glory

Unit 2: Age of Contact

Name:

Date:

Period:

Adventurous Job Opportunity!

- Must travel 2 slow months by sea to get there.
- We aren't really sure where the job is exactly.
- Some workers have gotten sick, lost, or even died on this job.
- We also aren't sure when or if you can come back home.
- You could make millions of dollars!!!!!! Or maybe get a little bit of gold. Or you could make nothing. Who knows!

Answer the following questions:

Would you consider taking this job?
Why or why not?

God, Gold, and Glory Exit Ticket

"This day I launched the ship and made ready to depart in the name of God, next Thursday, for the southeast in quest of gold and spices, as well as to discover the country."

- Personal narrative of the first voyage of Columbus to America: from a manuscript recently discovered in Spain. Library of Congress

___ 1) Which statement below gives the most accurate significance of the quote above?

- a. This quote demonstrates the significance of Columbus' journeys in establishing an international system of trade across the Atlantic.
- b. This quote demonstrates Spain's three primary goals of spreading the Catholic religion, gaining land and power, and acquiring great wealth.
- c. This quote demonstrates the rise of Spain as a world power following the defeat of the Moors during the period of time known as the Reconquista.
- d. This quote demonstrates the negative influence of Spanish exploration on American Indian populations.

God, Gold, and Glory Exit Ticket

"This day I launched the ship and made ready to depart in the name of God, next Thursday, for the southeast in quest of gold and spices, as well as to discover the country."

- Personal narrative of the first voyage of Columbus to America: from a manuscript recently discovered in Spain. Library of Congress

___ 1) Which statement below gives the most accurate significance of the quote above?

- a. This quote demonstrates the significance of Columbus' journeys in establishing an international system of trade across the Atlantic.
- b. This quote demonstrates Spain's three primary goals of spreading the Catholic religion, gaining land and power, and acquiring great wealth.
- c. This quote demonstrates the rise of Spain as a world power following the defeat of the Moors during the period of time known as the Reconquista.
- d. This quote demonstrates the negative influence of Spanish exploration on American Indian populations.