

Warm-up: The French Arrive

Unit 2: The Age of Contact

Name: Date: Period:

Consider: What often happens when a child sees another kid playing with a toy that they had been playing with first?	Now Consider: What might happen when a new country arrives in some land that a different country had been exploring first?

Warm-up: The French Arrive

Unit 2: Age of Contact

Name: Date: Period:

Consider: What often happens when a child sees another kid playing with a toy that they had been playing with first?	Now Consider: What might happen when a new country arrives in some land that a different country had been exploring first?

The French Arrive Exit Ticket

There are many possibilities for how Spain might respond to their enemy – the French – arriving in Texas. Read the possibilities below. Circle or highlight THREE that you think Spain would be most likely to do in this situation.

Return to Texas and continue their search for gold and other resources across the region.	Return to Texas and attempt to establish trade relations with the American Indians there.	Return to Texas to convert the American Indians to Spain's primary religion – Catholicism.
Establish Spanish communities in Texas to show that the land belongs to Spain.	Declare war on France to prevent more French people from entering Texas.	Send some Spanish military troops to Texas to protect the area from the French.

The French Arrive Exit Ticket

There are many possibilities for how Spain might respond to their enemy – the French – arriving in Texas. Read the possibilities below. Circle or highlight THREE that you think Spain would be most likely to do in this situation.

Return to Texas and continue their search for gold and other resources across the region.	Return to Texas and attempt to establish trade relations with the American Indians there.	Return to Texas to convert the American Indians to Spain's primary religion – Catholicism.
Establish Spanish communities in Texas to show that the land belongs to Spain.	Declare war on France to prevent more French people from entering Texas.	Send some Spanish military troops to Texas to protect the area from the French.