

Warm-up: The Search for Gold - Voices of Texas History

Unit 2: The Age of Contact – Extension Lesson

Name:  Date:  Period:

Who do you think said it?

Write your prediction from the choices below in the box to the right of the quote.

- (A) An American Indian called “the Turk”
- (B) Cabeza de Vaca
- (C) Coronado

“Throughout this region, wheresoever the mountains extend, we saw clear traces of gold.”
“The kingdoms that he had told them about had not been found . . . nor the wealth of gold.”
“The people at Cicuye asked [me] to lead [the Spanish] off on to the plains and lose them.”

Warm-up: The Search for Gold - Voices of Texas History

Unit 2: Age of Contact – Extension Lesson

Name:  Date:  Period:

Who do you think said it?

Write your prediction from the choices below in the box to the right of the quote.

- (A) An American Indian called “the Turk”
- (B) Cabeza de Vaca
- (C) Coronado

“Throughout this region, wheresoever the mountains extend, we saw clear traces of gold
“The kingdoms that he had told them about had not been found . . . nor the wealth of gold.”
“The people at Cicuye asked [me] to lead [the Spanish] off on to the plains and lose them.”

Voices of Texas History – The Search for Gold Exit Ticket

For just a moment, you have access to a time machine to bring one person that we learned about in class to the present. You also have a “Modern Language Translator” that translates whatever they say into modern English.

- Who would you choose?
- What question would you ask them?
- What do you think their response would be?

I would choose	I would ask them . . .	I think they might respond . . .
A. Coronado B. Cabeza de Vaca C. “The Turk” D. Ysopete

Voices of Texas History – The Search for Gold Exit Ticket

For just a moment, you have access to a time machine to bring one person that we learned about in class to the present. You also have a “Modern Language Translator” that translates whatever they say into modern English.

- Who would you choose?
- What question would you ask them?
- What do you think their response would be?

I would choose	I would ask them . . .	I think they might respond . . .
E. Coronado F. Cabeza de Vaca G. “The Turk” H. Ysopete		