

Unit 8: Civil War

Lesson 11: Looking Ahead

Warm-up

Follow the directions to complete your warm-up

- Imagine it: Read the scenario on your warm-up

- Questions to Consider: Choose at least one question to respond to.

- Discuss with a partner

Share with the class

If I were the president at the end of the Civil War, I would

Essential Question

How did Abraham Lincoln plan to deal with the end of the war and the Southern states who had rebelled?

In today's lesson...

1. We will analyze Abraham Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address to determine his approach to dealing with the end of the Civil War.
2. I will read excerpts from Abraham Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address to make observations and inferences about his goals for the country after the Civil War.

Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address

Photograph taken at the east portico of the U.S. Capitol, March 4, 1865.

President Lincoln is standing in the center at the podium.

The Library of Congress

"With Malice Toward None"

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan — to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations."

Abraham Lincoln.

Lincoln wrote a portion of his Second Inaugural Speech in an autograph book.

The Library of Congress

Exit Ticket

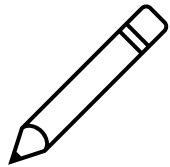

Follow the directions to complete your exit ticket

- Imagine it: Read the scenario on your warm-up

- Points of View to Consider: Choose one or both points of view, to record your response.

- Discuss with a partner

Share with the class

A Southern Confederate would probably hope _____

A newly freed Black Texan would probably hope _____

