

Warm-up: Growing Tension in Texas

Unit 4: The Mexican National Era

Name:

Date:

Period:

In this lesson we will learn about some events that caused tension in Texas during this era. Read the events below. Two of them really happened, and two did not. Make an educated guess to complete the chart.	Yes, I think this happened (choose 2)	No, I don't think this happened (Choose 2)
1. More and more Anglos across Texas began leading rebellions for independence from Mexico.
2. Mexico became so nervous about Anglos that they prohibited all immigration from the U.S. into Texas.
3. People in Texas start supporting the Centralists who were taking over the Mexican government, even sometimes taking part in violence to show their support.
4. The Mexican government imprisoned Stephen F. Austin for crimes against Mexico.

Warm-up: Growing Tension in Texas

Unit 4: The Mexican National Era

Name:

Date:

Period:

In this lesson we will learn about some events that caused tension in Texas during this era. Read the events below. Two of them really happened, and two did not. Make an educated guess to complete the chart.	Yes, I think this happened (choose 2)	No, I don't think this happened (Choose 2)
1. More and more Anglos across Texas began leading rebellions for independence from Mexico.
2. Mexico became so nervous about Anglos that they prohibited all immigration from the U.S. into Texas.
3. People in Texas start supporting the Centralists who were taking over the Mexican government, even sometimes taking part in violence to show their support.
4. The Mexican government imprisoned Stephen F. Austin for crimes against Mexico.

Growing Tension in Texas Exit Ticket

Step 2: In the space below, explain what caused the event you chose in step 1.	START HERE Step 1: Choose one event we learned about today. Circle or highlight your chosen event.	Step 3: In the space below, explain the effect of the event you chose in step 1.
	The Fredonian Rebellion The Mier y Terán Report The Law of April 6, 1830 The Turtle Bayou Resolutions The Conventions of 1832 & 1833 The Arrest of Stephen F. Austin

Growing Tension in Texas Exit Ticket

Step 2: In the space below, explain what caused the event you chose in step 1.	START HERE Step 1: Choose one event we learned about today. Circle or highlight your chosen event.	Step 3: In the space below, explain the effect of the event you chose in step 1.
	The Fredonian Rebellion The Mier y Terán Report The Law of April 6, 1830 The Turtle Bayou Resolutions The Conventions of 1832 & 1833 The Arrest of Stephen F. Austin	