

Answer Key: What's the story?

Warm-up

- Answers will vary

Lesson

Part I: Early Texas People in our Minds Today

1. True
2. False
3. False
4. True

Part III: Comprehension and Analysis

1. Student responses should include the Caddo, since that tribe is labeled with the largest writing on the map.
2. (Foundations work does not have this question) Responses may vary but should include information from paragraph two in the reading on the previous page which states, "The Caddo were a large, powerful confederation of tribes who excelled in agriculture and formed trade relations and alliances with other tribes. They lived in large, well-organized communities in the most fertile and richest part of Texas: the northeast Coastal Plains and beyond into present-day Louisiana and Arkansas"
3. The Great Plains were least inhabited – student responses can refer to paragraph 6 in the reading which states, "Food and resources were scarce. The difficult environment of the Great Plains made life challenging and harsh for the Apache, who really struggled on the Texas Plains – at first."
  - Letter C on Grade Level Work
  - This question is number 2 on foundations work, answer letter C
4. (Advanced and Grade Level. On Foundations level work this is question #3) Answers will vary but may include Because the borders of Texas that we know today didn't exist at that time. (Answer B on Grade Level and Foundations work)

Exit Ticket

- Answers will vary