1. What conclusions or inferences can you make based on the newspaper excerpt here?

"A Rebuke – Every day we hear reports of foolish...men being arrested for declaring that they are glad President Lincoln was assassinated; but thousands of mouths blab the horrible sentiment that God killed Abraham Lincoln because he was too lenient to the rebels.... There is call for sterner reprobation, in the pious suggestion that our good President has been providentially called hence in order that the leading rebels may receive that...punishment which his kindness of heart would have averted."

- The Patriot Newspaper, La Grange, Texas. May 19, 1865. The Portal to Texas History

Rebuke:

Disapproval

Lenient: Merciful, tolerant

Reprobation:

Condemnation, opposition

Providentially called hence:

Called to heaven by God

Averted:

Prevented, stopped

What's the story? Exit Ticket

Directions: The following five statements describe key events of the Reconstruction Era, though they are out of order. Put the events in the correct chronological order by writing the number of the event in the blank provided.

- _____ A) President Andrew Johnson was considered by many in Congress to be too lenient on the South and the ex-Confederates.
- _____ B) The Redeemers regained control of the Southern states like Texas, wrote new Constitutions, returning political power to the local level rather than the state level.
- _____ C) President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated less than one week after Confederate General Robert E. Lee surrendered his army to the Union.
- _____ D) Many ex-Confederates in the South were angry at measures taken during Congressional Reconstruction, and they worked to "Redeem" Southern states like Texas.
- _____ E) Congress impeached President Johnson, and implanted much stricter Reconstruction measures in the South, including martial law.
