

Warm-up: The Council House Fight Extension

Unit 6: The Republic of Texas

Name:

Date:

Period:

1. The shaded portion of the map is labeled Comanchería in the map key. What do you think this means?
2. What effect do you think the Comanchería territory had on nearby towns like Austin and San Antonio?

Warm-up: The Council House Fight Extension

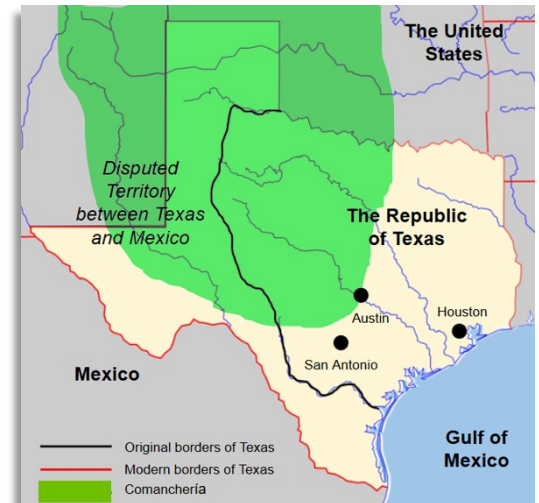

Unit 6: The Republic of Texas

Name:

Date:

Period:

1. The shaded portion of the map is labeled Comanchería in the map key. What do you think this means?
2. What effect do you think the Comanchería territory had on nearby towns like Austin and San Antonio?

The Council House Fight Extension Exit Ticket

1. Place a checkmark next to every statement that is TRUE about the Council House Fight.
 - ☐ The Republic of Texas government asked the Penateka Comanche tribe for a meeting to discuss a peace agreement.
 - ☐ The Republic of Texas government would only agree to a meeting with the Penateka Comanches if they returned all of the Anglos they had captured during their raids.
 - ☐ The Comanches only brought about 5 of their peace chiefs to the meeting at the San Antonio Council House because their numbers had been dramatically reduced.
 - ☐ The Comanches only brought a few captives, and only one Anglo captive – a girl named Matilda Lockhart who had been tortured.
 - ☐ A fight broke out when the Anglos at the meeting stated they would hold the Comanches as prisoners until they returned the rest of the Anglo captives.
 - ☐ Most of the Comanches escaped the fight and the rangers, military, and townspeople suffered casualties in the hundreds.
 - ☐ In response to the Council House Fight, the Comanches later mounted a large raid and attack on the Texan towns of Victoria and Linnville.

The Council House Fight Extension Exit Ticket

1. Place a checkmark next to every statement that is TRUE about the Council House Fight.
 - ☐ The Republic of Texas government asked the Penateka Comanche tribe for a meeting to discuss a peace agreement.
 - ☐ The Republic of Texas government would only agree to a meeting with the Penateka Comanches if they returned all of the Anglos they had captured during their raids.
 - ☐ The Comanches only brought about 5 of their peace chiefs to the meeting at the San Antonio Council House because their numbers had been dramatically reduced.
 - ☐ The Comanches only brought a few captives, and only one Anglo captive – a girl named Matilda Lockhart who had been tortured.
 - ☐ A fight broke out when the Anglos at the meeting stated they would hold the Comanches as prisoners until they returned the rest of the Anglo captives.
 - ☐ Most of the Comanches escaped the fight and the rangers, military, and townspeople suffered casualties in the hundreds.
 - ☐ In response to the Council House Fight, the Comanches later mounted a large raid and attack on the Texan towns of Victoria and Linnville.