Essential Question

What significant information do we need to know to be successful on the unit 6 test on the Republic of Texas?

In Today's Lesson

- 1. We will identify and review significant information for our upcoming test.
- 2. I will use my previous work and notes to complete my study guide. I will identify and match cause and effect relationships, create short answer responses, and answer practice test questions.

of Mexico, Jusc 4th, 1813.

My childfood shown arese to view. The hands of hophosis, we'd I know. Where long in innocence and mirth I rounded the happinst thing on Earth A gildy, thoughtes, languing; hoy When found in any thing, a toy. When too I nave it these happy years When all around, so bright appara Smeet years of any ceiting train. My happy dreaming, early youth— The village church and grave yard green The mendow's quise lovely scene The long, low, busy antique mill To med by a gently gargling rill Upon whose banks I used to dream With thoughts as pure as that bright stream All these I passed and onward press'd To meet the friends that loved me best heard my father's manly voice In tones that made my soul rejace Welcome his troward, errant bay, Oh God! the burst of hearfelt joy.
That swell'd within my barming soul
With feelings far beyond control
When to my mother's besting breast Again her wayward son she press'd And kiss'd my sunburnt cheek and brows That from my parents, and my home I never, never, more would roam. My brother, whom I left a boy Hailed my return with manly joy My sisters round the wanders cont.

And sank upon my breat and wept.

With magic quickness changed the scene.

I comed through forests, wild and green.

In distant land yet known full well.

When honored irlands and loved once dwel. Where Bruros river sallenly
Its dark brown stream rolls foward the sen I passed beneath a goodly shade By broad and leafy liveous smade And my heart was gaily, wildly glad To feel that I again was fee I felt that noight could tooke me said While blest with heavenborn hiberty. Nor was I in that grove shone For one long towed was with me there Whose heart I occa believed my own Modest as besutcons, mild as fair Methogent my arms enclasped her waist While to my heart I tondly prest Her lovely form, her mild blue eve
