Directions: Circle or highlight each item in the answer bank that you think is true for Texas as we begin this unit.

A lot of land, property, and communities were destroyed during the Texas Revolution.	The Texas government was weak, and disorganized, which causes a lot of instability in the country.	Texas used its profitable cotton crop and enormous amounts of land to pay off all its debt.
Mexico could invade Texas again and the government and military had little power to stop it.	The U.S. government stepped in to provide funds and defense for the Republic of Texas.	Many Texans lost everything in the war and have very little money to start over.
The people of Texas had fierce debates over whether or not to keep slavery in the new country.	To address the many challenges they faced, the people of Texas wanted to join the U.S.	In the face of so many challenges, the people of Texas wanted to rejoin Mexico.
