The Mission Presidio System Exit Ticket

We know there were no cellphones in the 1600s when the Spanish began establishing missions, but let's imagine ...

Imagine: You are in east Texas at the new missions.

Now imagine that there were cellphones at the time. The Spanish governor of Texas sends you a message to see how it's going.

How do you respond?

What would his response be?
