

Warm-up: The Texas Declaration of Independence

Unit 5: The Texas Revolution

Name:

Date:

Period:

Imagine it: It's March 1836 and you are a delegate at the Constitutional Convention of 1836. You are on George Childress' committee to write the Texas Declaration of Independence. What do you think should be included in the document? Choose any and all items from the list below.

- ☐ An explanation of why people want to separate from Mexico.
- ☐ Requirements for religious worship and settlement of new immigrants.
- ☐ A list of problems many Texans have with the centralist government.
- ☐ A description of what a good government should do for its people.
- ☐ A complete set of laws for a new and better government.
- ☐ Examples of how the centralist government has failed to be a good government, in your opinion.
- ☐ An explanation of the rights people should have under their government.
- ☐ An argument for where a government should get its power from.

Warm-up: The Texas Declaration of Independence

Unit 5: The Texas Revolution

Name:

Date:

Period:

Imagine it: It's March 1836 and you are a delegate at the Constitutional Convention of 1836. You are on George Childress' committee to write the Texas Declaration of Independence. What do you think should be included in the document? Choose any and all items from the list below.

- ☐ An explanation of why people want to separate from Mexico.
- ☐ Requirements for religious worship and settlement of new immigrants.
- ☐ A list of problems many Texans have with the centralist government.
- ☐ A description of what a good government should do for its people.
- ☐ A complete set of laws for a new and better government.
- ☐ Examples of how the centralist government has failed to be a good government, in your opinion.
- ☐ An explanation of the rights people should have under their government.
- ☐ An argument for where a government should get its power from.

The Texas Declaration of Independence Exit Ticket

Imagine you were at the Constitutional Convention of 1836. It's time to write the Texas Declaration of Independence, but the committee chair, George Childress, is sick! You step up to write the Declaration. What would you write? Use the prompts below to complete the activity.

I am writing this document because _____

_____.

The centralist government has done many things to upset the people of Texas, including _____

_____.

For these reasons, the people of Texas want _____

The Texas Declaration of Independence Exit Ticket

Imagine you were at the Constitutional Convention of 1836. It's time to write the Texas Declaration of Independence, but the committee chair, George Childress, is sick! You step up to write the Declaration. What would you write? Use the prompts below to complete the activity.

I am writing this document because _____

_____.

The centralist government has done many things to upset the people of Texas, including _____

_____.

For these reasons, the people of Texas want _____