Letter from Stephen F. Austin to One of the Fredonian Rebels

Stephen F. Austin to B. J. Thompson, Dec. 24, 1826

Sir,

“...I have heard with the greatest astonishment that you have taken an active part in the commotions in that part of the country. My friend I hope you will not take my frankness amiss when I say that you have committed an error, you have by that rash act injured your own standing with the Government and made the words of your enemies true, and you have jeopardized the prospects of this whole country...”

“...Write me as soon as possible and write frankly what you intend to do and what is the state of things in that country for we have many rumors here—and rumors that I hope are false, altho they come very direct from travelers who are daily passing—but I am unwilling to believe that you have all run mad.”

Announcement of the Law of April 6, 1830

Mexican Legislation in the United States

“Art. 11. In virtue of the authority which has been reserved by the General Congress to itself, by Art. 7th of the law of the 18th of August of 1824, all foreigners whose country is bounding on said State and Territory of the federation shall be prohibited from settling within the said State or Territory, in consequence of which all the contracts that have not taken effect, and are opposed to this law, shall be suspended.”

Wherefore, I declare, in the name of the Mexican Government, that whatever contract shall have been made in violation of the said law, will be null and void, it being understood that colonization in the State of Coahuila and Texas, and the territory of New Mexico, by citizens of the United States has been prohibited. --Baltimore, Nov. 5, 1830” Jose M.
