

Unit 5: The Texas Revolution

Extension Lesson:
The Battle of San Jacinto

Warm-up

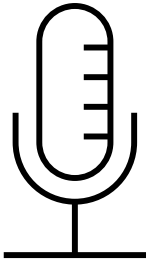

Use the image here and on your paper to complete your warm-up

"The Surrender of Santa Anna" by William Henry Huddle
The Library of Congress

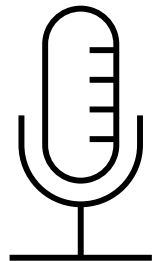

<https://education.texashistory.unt.edu>

Share with the class

One thing I notice about the image is _____.

I think this image might be related to today's lesson because _____

Essential Question

What were the causes, effects, and most significant events of the Battle of San Jacinto?

In today's lesson...

1. We will analyze the causes, effects, key events, and significance of the Battle of San Jacinto.
2. I will watch a video about the Battle of San Jacinto, take notes on key information from the video, and answer questions related to the information in the video.

Video Vocabulary

Term	Definition
Improbable (adj)	Unlikely or unexpected
Vulnerable (adj)	In a position to be easily attacked; not completely safe.
A ridge (n)	A long, narrow, elevated area of land
Crest (n)	The highest point of elevated land, like a hill or ridge.
Barrage (n)	A continuous and heavy period of bombing or shooting in a war or battle, typically aimed at a specific area
Cavalry (n)	A branch of the military in which soldiers travel and fight on horses.

Before you watch

Read the instructions before you begin this segment.

Before you watch	After you watch	Statement
T / F	T / F	1. Sam Houston retreated from Santa Anna because he did not want to face the centralist army in battle.
T / F	T / F	1. Santa Anna divided his army in an attempt to move as quickly as possible to capture the Texas government and defeat Houston's army.
T / F	T / F	1. The Texas victory at the Battle of San Jacinto was not the primary factor that ended the Texas Revolution.
T / F	T / F	1. The Texas Revolution was important in Texas history but had little influence on the history of the United States or Mexico.

While you watch

Read the directions before you begin this segment

Factors that contributed to the Texan Victory at San Jacinto

Click here to watch the video of the Battle of San Jacinto

After you watch

Step 1

Before you watch	After you watch	Statement
T / F	T / F	1. Sam Houston retreated from Santa Anna because he did not want to face the centralist army in battle.
T / F	T / F	1. Santa Anna divided his army in an attempt to move as quickly as possible to capture the Texas government and defeat Houston's army.
T / F	T / F	1. The Texas victory at the Battle of San Jacinto was not the primary factor that ended the Texas Revolution.
T / F	T / F	1. The Texas Revolution was important in Texas history but had little influence on the history of the United States or Mexico.

After you watch

Step 2

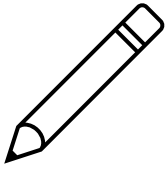

Answer the questions about the Battle of San Jacinto based on the information presented in the video.

*The Surrender of Santa Anna by William Henry Huddle
The Library of Congress*

Exit Ticket

Follow the directions on your paper to complete your exit ticket

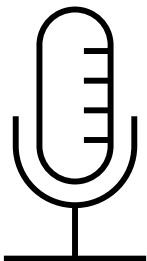

- Complete the sentence stems about the Battle of San Jacinto based on the information presented in the video.

- Share with a partner

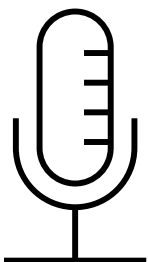

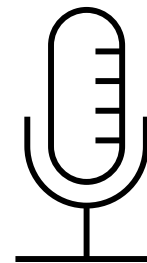

Share with the class

One important event that caused the Battle of San Jacinto was _____

One important piece of information about the Battle of San Jacinto is _____

One important effect of the Battle of San Jacinto was _____