Part III: Vocabulary in Context Questions

Dilue Rose Harris was a young Anglo-American girl aged 10 or 11 during the Texas Revolution. Decades later, she was interviewed about her experience growing up during the war. Read the following excerpt from her interview and answer the questions that follow.

"The people had been in a state of excitement during the winter. They knew that Colonel Travis had but few men to defend San Antonio...I remember when his letter came calling for assistance. He was surrounded by a large army with General Santa Anna in command, and had been ordered to surrender, but fought till the last man died. This letter came in February. I have never seen it in print, but I heard mother read it. When she finished, the [man] who brought it went on to Brazoria..."

"By the 20th of February the people of San Patricio and other western settlements were fleeing for their lives. Every family in our neighborhood was preparing to go to the United States."
