Choose a primary source document and write a historical short fiction narrative.

When you are finished, share your story with your classmates.